

Metal Works

Essential to human progress, the discovery and mastery of metal has influenced diverse practices in art. Drawn exclusively from the Oklahoma State University Museum of Art collection, this exhibition examines the pervasive and varied use of metal in the visual art.

January 30 - June 9, 2018

 OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY
MUSEUM of ART

Exhibitions and programs at the OSU Museum of Art are supported by: the OSU Museum of Art Advocates, the Raymond & Bessie Kravis Foundation, Malinda and Dick Fischer, and the OSU Museum of Art Founding Patrons and Charter Members.

720 South Husband Street | museum.okstate.edu | 405.744.2780 | Hours: Tues - Sat: 11 am to 4 pm, Thurs: 11 am to 7 pm

Image: Artist Unknown, African, Bamana, Horse with Rider and Shield, 20th century, iron, 6 x 5 1/2 inches. Permanent Collection, Gift of Larry and Mattie Harms, 2011.001.129.