

BEYOND
FORM: TYPE
AS IMAGE

This exhibition explores how the use of type-based imagery in art can reflect historical, social, and cultural conditions of a society. The show explores type in art by studying a broad spectrum of objects from ancient Greece to the contemporary moment. Artists include Niki de Saint Phalle, Pablo Picasso, Panamarenko, Robert Indiana, Jiro Kuwata, and more.

October 11 - December 17, 2022

Reception | Tuesday, October 11 | 5 - 7 P.M.

MUSEUM OF ART

720 S. Husband Street, Stillwater

museum.okstate.edu | 405.744.2780

Funding for this season of programming is provided through the generous support of Deb and Dave Engle, Caroline and John Linehan, Suzanne Sugg, the OSU President's Office | OSU Foundation, Thomas N. Berry & Company, and the OSU Museum of Art Advocates.