

5 REASONS TO VISIT THE OSU MUSEUM OF ART

1. Experience art in person!

Students discover connections to personal perspectives, contemporary issues, and universal ideas.

2. Build skills!

Build observation, questioning, critical thinking and visual literacy skills through inquiry-based learning.

3. Have fun while learning!

Enjoy interactive tours led by enthusiastic docents, making learning memorable and fun.

4. Admission is free!

Free admission, free parking, plus busing subsidies available*.

5. More than a tour!

Expand your visit for a truly dynamic art-making experience with partner institutions.

Our PreK-12 inquiry-based tours encourage students of all abilities to explore art through deep looking, creative thinking, and lively discussion.

To book a tour, visit our website <https://museum.okstate.edu/visit/tours.html> or contact Casey Ihde, curator of education, K12.

Our schedule is always flexible for groups, admission is free and we are happy to answer any questions.

In partnership with the Prairie Arts Center, tours can be paired with art-making workshops inspired by our exhibitions, so students can take the conversation from the gallery to the studio.

PRAIRIE ARTS CENTER
An Oklahoma State University and City of Stillwater Community Arts Partnership

ALL SET OR HAVE QUESTIONS?

Reach out to Casey Ihde!

Curator of Education, K12

➔ casey.pankey@okstate.edu
➔ 405.744.2777

*Visit our website to learn more museum.okstate.edu